ORDER

GÓMEZ, J.

This case commenced on September 13, 2018, when the Grand Jury returned a seven-count indictment against three defendants. Since then, the Grand Jury has returned several superseding indictments that added additional defendants and charges. The most recent indictment charges eleven defendants with 47 counts.

The Court has continued the trial on multiple occasions. On January 28, 2020, the Court rescheduled the trial to commence on May 18, 2020.

On February 4, 2020, at an off-the-record status conference in chambers, the United States and various defense counsel expressed a desire to continue the trial to a date in June, 2020.

Later that day, the United States filed a motion on the docket requesting a continuance of the trial date to a date on or after June 1, 2020. In that motion, the United States recounted that, at the status conference earlier that day, several defense counsel had concurred with its desire to continue the trial to June, 2020.

On February 14, 2020, the Court entered an order requiring the United States to file a notice advising the Court whether or not each defendant in this case concurs with the request of the United States to continue the trial to June, 2020.
