J. F. HENRY,

Clerk of the District Court

MISS LATIMER of Campo Rico has received so many expressions of sympathy in connection with the disastrous fire at her home, that it is impossible to thank her friends individually, but takes this opportunity of conveying to all who have come forward in this time of sorrow, her heartfelt appreciation of their kindness. She hopes that they will understand how much she has been comforted by all these tokens of friendship and sympathy and wishes that all may have "the blessing which maketh rich and addeth no sorrow."
