ST. MARY'S HALL

THE HOUSE OF GOOD PICTURES.

Attention! Attention! Movie Fans!

"This is a week of unusual interest for 'U'. Not too much of anything, but a little of everything. It makes the World your Neighbour.

Starting TONIGHT:

TWO DISTINCTIVE PRODUCTIONS!!

with Drama, serial & comedy or 3 in 1 combinations.

TONIGHT 8.20 sharp.

Virginia Brown Faire in "Without Benefit of Clergy"

from the great novel by RUDYARD KIPLING.

SYNOPSIS:---A story of an English officer's life in India, where against his honor he falls in love with an Indian Slave, and makes her his wife. Famine comes, his wife and child dies and the screen reveals to you the balance.

This is a Photoplay with a new idea, come and see a picture that is not a Mamby-Pamby love story. Not an old type Melodrama, but entirely different from any photoplay you have ever seen.

N.B. It takes you two weeks to read this great novel at your leisure. In two hours you have the entire story vividly before your eyes. Make the Movie a part of your library and you will benefit greatly by it, apart from being amused. Prepare yourself to see "Hamlet" prince of Denmark very soon.

WEDNESDAY 8.20 sharp.

"THE BLUE FOX" 1 & 2

with Comedy and Kinogram Reels.

1. THE MESSAGE OF HATE.
2. THE MENACE FROM THE SLAY.

The Great Arrow Serial, with the screen most popular Western Star "Anne Little" and a great supporting cast directed by Duke Worne and produced under the personal supervision of the King of serial producers Ben Wilson. Story by the greatest of serial writers Joe Brandt and Hope Loring. "The Blue Fox" is a super-production in serial form. Has all the thrills and sustained interest but not the cheap stunts of others, and best of all it is a logical story. It is the Cleanest, Most Interesting and Best Made Serial ever put upon the screen. A high class chapterplay elaborately made and thrilling from the jump. No fake stunts, No Bunk. Don't miss a chapter of this Great Play.

Our prices remain the same.

Tickets for sale at Miss MARIE FROSS and JOHN ALEXANDER & SONS.

NEXT WEEK:- Blue Fox 3 & 4 "World Apart" by Eugene O'Brien the picture you have long been waiting for "A day with Dempsey".
