"JACK DEMPSEY"

HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION OF THE WORLD.

IN

"DAREDEVIL JACK"

Jack Dempsey, champion heavyweight, plays the title role and puts many convincing punches into the picture. Dempsey is youthful enough to fit into the romance of the story, developing later in this picture which has more to do with punches than with smiles, and believe me, it's Real Punches, not Stage Punches.

The Story:

Jack Derry in "Daredevil Jack" accidentally becomes involved in a mystery surrounding Glory Billings, when fate makes him her rescuer in a kidnapping episode.

In the early stages of the story two prospectors are searching for gold in a western desert. One of them is obliged to return to the settlement with his sick wife. The other, after promising his partner a half interest in what he finds, continues with his little girl into the wilderness. The story then skips several years ahead, and we find the girl, Glory, living in the home of her grandfather, Leonard Billings. One day, when she is motoring along the country road alone, she is stopped and seized by three men with whom she is struggling when Jack Derry, a college athlete, happens to come along in time to beat off the kidnappers and rescue the girl.

As the story develops Billings is found in possession of a secret told him by Glory, to the effect that her father, on his last prospecting trip, discovered a subterranean basin of pure oil. In the various exciting situations that develop, Derry is always on hand, usually through the information sent him by the Billings butler, as the rescuer of Glory.

The story becomes even more interesting when a new complication appears. It so happens that Billings has been instrumental in placing Derry's father in prison, by getting him to sign a paper purported to be a release of certain mining interest in favor of Billings, but which is in reality a confession, framed by Billings to place Derry in prison and relieve himself of certain obligations.

searchlights of the ship were later on thrown around.

Mrs. D. L. Scanlon, wife of Chief Radio Operator here, died at her home in this town early yesterday morning as a result of poisoning. It is understood that the unfortunate lady got up during the night to take some medicine and in mistake measured and drank Lysol. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Scanlon on this sad and tragic occasion. The body will be sent to the States for burial it is advised.

NEWS NOTES.

Captain A. C. Strutt of H. M. S. "Constance" make an official call on the Despatching Secretary yesterday morning and expressed his appreciation for the many courtesies that had been extended to him and the personnel of the ship under his command by the good people of St. Croix.

The "Constance" sailed late yesterday afternoon for Barbuda, B. W. I.

TELEGRAMS.

ST. CROIX STATION.

London, Nov. 10th.—Viscount Birkenhead is created an Earl by the honours list of Mr. Lloyd George, issued today and Lord Lee of Fareham is made a Viscount. Viscount Farquhar is created an Earl and Lord Leverhulme becomes a Viscount. The following are made Peers: Sir John Bethell, Sir Joseph Maclay, and Lieut-Colonel Francis Mildmay. Sir Edward Gauding, barrister and member of Parliament for Worcester, was also raised to the Peerage. In the list of political honours for services rendered the Coalition Govt., Mr. Winston Churchill, former Secretary for the Colonies, is made a member of the Order of the Companions of Honour, which was created by King George in June 1917, and is restricted to fifty members. The order carries with it no title and is conferred for "conspicuous services of national importance". It ranks next to, and immediately after, the first class of the order of the British Empire.
