The Demerara Chronicle, 20th October 1918.

The opening performance by the Gilmore Troupe was given on Tuesday night—when Syd Gilmore 12 years and Eutie Gilmore 9 years old gave a great exhibition of their feats on the Trapeze, as Contortionists. The elder Gilmore is an expert on the Trapeze, while the younger drew much applause for his contortions.

Port-of-Spain Gazette, Wednesday 20th 1918.

Do not fail to see them. The Gilmore Troupe of wonder workers, it is their last night, and their performance is worth every cent of good money, and a great deal more.

NOTE—This Troupe had the pleasure of performing before His Excellency the Governor of Trinidad, on the Queen's Park Grounds.

At the Olympic Theatre the Gilmore Brothers Performance was a thorough success. Eutie Gilmore the baby reptile was magnificent in his various stunts and was repeatedly applauded by the entire house, the better part of which went off their feet to catch every movement of the boy Syd in perfection as a balancing artist, hanging on the trapeze without touching for close on fifteen minutes, the climax of his performance was reached when he comfortably reclined in a chair, which was placed on the trapeze. It seemed certain death, or at least near it. But the poise was equal and Syd came through to the pleasure of a delightful audience.
