

NOTICE

TO

Holder of Liberty Bonds

THE Bank having been requested by the Treasury Department in Washington to assist the Treasury and the Public in having the temporary Liberty Bonds held in these islands, exchanged for permanent Bonds, has considered it a pleasure to place its facilities at the disposal of the Treasury for the said purpose, for which reason it begs to notify the Public that it is willing to receive, without costs or charges, any Bonds held in these Communities, and forward same to Washington for Exchange as mentioned above.

All holders of the Third Liberty Loan Bonds are particularly requested to address the Bank as early as possible with their Holdings, in order to obtain the new Bonds with attached Coupons.
