A MUSICAL INVITATION

The Naval Band sends this special invitation to music lovers in both towns, Christiansted and Frederiksted, requesting your presence at the concert to be rendered Sunday night. It might be the last time you will hear the band as the men has been officially ordered to leave for St. Thomas with the first available Government transportation. Your attention is called to the program which appears elsewhere in this paper.

Correspondence

To Brother Voters.

Dear Friends:

The day for the Election draws nigh, and the time should now be used for discussing the merits or demerits of the Candidates nominated. No time need be wasted for speculating as to men, who are not likely to accept election; much as may be known of their reputation for honesty, truth and the determined spirit to stand manfully for their Country, and brethren's good— Besides which, we may suffer deception at a critical moment. The best thing after all, is with gladness, to take the man of whom proof has been obtained in the past, and who firmly stands for the present and for the future—the man who fears nor regards neither color, class nor creed, when the welfare and interest of his constituents are at stake.

There is one on the list, against whom nothing stands. He is a man, who is not carried away by the smiles and blandishments of the "BIG BOSSES". He is not a wayfarer, seeking his own personal advantages, nor the comforts and conveniences of his friends. He is proud to be considered by all classes (as he assuredly is) as one, who objects not, to the making of friends, but draws the line as soon as he becomes sure of their attitude being inimical to the interests which he is sworn to defend—viz: the weal of his countrymen—and then they are dropped. That, is undoubtedly, the kind of man we want; and as years and experience are not lacking (he is not a youth) we can place some amount of dependence on him—and although not blessed with a College degree, yet what matters that? his sound common-sense view of things general, and his few, but sensible words, and points of argument, putting often the more pretentious scholars to shame, stands good in many rises and who is fully enough suited for our and his dear little St. Croix Legislative body of men.

And, that man is our esteemed and Independent Merchant, Land and house holder etc etc.

WILLIAM S. ABRAMSON.

The firm and faithful position taken by him in the past, and even in the very recent past in opposing obnoxious bills detrimental to the pockets of the tax-payers have demonstrated to us, that W. S. Abramson, occupying one of the seats of our C. C. and having a word and a vote in the settlement of affairs of vital importance to our country—we need not fear of a "Rush Through" of matters injurious to our weal.

Let us therefore vote for W. S. Abramson without fail.

Yours faithfully

AN INTERESTED VOTER.

Dear Sir.—

It is some time now, since I have been hearing different rumours, between the Labor Union, and other individuals.

In a public meeting held in the market, some time in March. The first
