

GOVERNMENT OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS OF ST. THOMAS

Executive Order No. 3--1922.

1. Executive Order No. 10-1922 is hereby amended, and the instructions contained therein shall be superseded by the instructions contained in this order.

2. In the future all persons discharged from Richmond Penitentiary who have served for a period of six months will be furnished with the clothing in which they appeared at the time of confinement and not over Francs 25 in cash, which sum, depending on the circumstances—and in the discretion of the Director of Police—may be reduced, but not below the sum of Francs 5.

3. Persons discharged from Richmond Penitentiary who are natives of St. Croix will not be returned to St. Thomas at Government's expense, but natives of St. Thomas, when convicted in St. Thomas, will be furnished with return transportation at the expiration of their sentences.

4. The expenses incurred by paragraph 2 and 3 hereof shall be paid from "Maintenance" Police Department.

5. Payments shall be made by check from the Despatching Secretary's Office upon voucher signed by the person being discharged and approved by the Director of Police.

Witness my hand and the Seal of the Government of the Virgin Islands of the United States this twelfth day of May nineteen hundred and twenty two.

SUMNER E. W. KITTELLE, Governor.

to leave it overnight at his place, it being too heavy for them to lug into the country whither they were bound. A third party to this scheme was concealed in the sack and during the night set to handing out things to his mates outside, all three, however, being discovered and taken charge of by the police. Whether or not these fellows gained their criminal plans from the movies, it is an acknowledged fact that the movies does play an important role for moral uplift or debasement, and we could get along with less of the film portraying depravity in its countless forms. The local moving picture industry of course depends on the continent for its supply of material, and it is no secret that the moving picture business in the States needed a general cleaning up which it is expected to get with that human dynamo Will H. Hays running things, so that in due time we shall reap the benefits here as well we hope. This incident is both confirmed and denied from equally reliable sources, but in all probability, as the old saying goes, "smoke is not seen without fire."

The desperate thief to whom we made
