THE FINAL SHOW OF

"MATHIAS SANDORF"

AFTER THE FAMOUS NOVEL

BY

"JULES VERNE"

Summary of the Preceeding Episodes:

The tartan with Sava on board had reached the African coast, where Sarcany had already landed.

To make the girl decide to marry him Sarcany had advised her of Pierre's death, but though a captive, Sava desperately resisted him.

Meantime in Antikirtta, Pierre, is convalescent. He learns that Antikirtt is none other than Mathias Sandorf who, having escaped death, has become possessor of immense wealth.

Then Antikirtt asks him to join him in his vengeance on Carpena, Sarcany and Silas Toronthal; thus Pierre discovers that Sava is the daughter of the informer against his father Etrenne Bathery.

Advised of Mrs. Bathery's disappearance, Mathias Sandorf sets out in search of her and to seize Sarcany of whose presence in Sicily he is also informed.

- STAR-SPANGLED BANNER.
FRED. C. JACKSON, JR.
Bandmaster.

in the teaching of nursery rhymes and instructive juvenile melodies, so that the children should be trained not only, to sing, but to learn to "love" to sing. Band music is not what is aimed at with the little children, the Assistant Director advises. From the nature of the requirements it would appear that a female teacher is the one to meet the need in this case; but, undoubtedly, others may qualify. Mr. Lindborg is pleased to learn that people are interested in the teaching of music in the schools, and trusts for cooperation in achieving what is desired.
