Correspondence.

Christiansted, St. Croix Nov 5, 1920.
Editor St. Croix Avis.

Dear Sir:

In a news item which appeared in the issue of October 7th. of your esteemed paper the public was informed that until a new engine was secured by the Electric Power Plant of this town it would be possible to supply only enough current to light the streets. As no contradiction to this statement has been forthcoming from the proprietor of the plant, and as no subsequent notice has been given that the engine had arrived or that the plant was again prepared to deliver current to houses, stores, etc., everybody is astonished at being called upon to pay bills for electric current as from the 16th. October, and would like to make known their objection publicly. As you and probably all the subscribers know light has been available only by fits and starts, and at its best the current
