The President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. President:

I want to add my word of encouragement to the many I know you are receiving in support of your efforts to restore prayer to the schools of America.

At a time when the world is in economic and political turmoil, and crimes of violence have become almost commonplace, people are in greater need of faith and prayer than they have ever been.

I am encouraging my fellow Virgin Islanders to join with me in expressing their hopes for your success in this undertaking.

Sincerely,

John A. Bell
Senator
