EDITORIAL.

The jubilee fund of the forthcoming Moravian Jubilee celebrations for which a programme is published, will be expended as follows, it is advised: 1. For painting and washing the outside of the church; 2. for renovating and painting the platform; 3. for carpeting the aisles of the church; 4. for augmenting the "New Organ Fund". We are further informed that the congregation originally expected to get a new organ for the jubilee, but finding it impossible to secure it during the jubilee year, it has been decided to do the other three things aforementioned. Collections will be taken at the public services and the platform meetings in behalf of the jubilee fund, and the donations of friends and well-wishers, either toward the general jubilee fund, or especially towards the "New Organ Fund" will be gratefully received by the minister-in-charge. It is likewise very gratifying to learn that Revd. A. T. King, former pastor of the Friedensberg Mission is expected by the "Parima" today to participate in the celebrations, and his many friends here and in Frederiksted will be glad to meet him. Mr. King is now stationed at Basseterre, St. Kitts, and his well known Christian spirit that did so much to build up the church at Frederiksted is winning much progress for the work in his present field of labor.

QUERY:

Will Mr. Joseph Alexander confirm or deny the statement that he is "Begging for Votes"?

Can Mr. Joseph Alexander deny that he has written letters to the Voters of this Town "Begging for Votes"?

Can Mr. Joseph Alexander deny that himself and father have been "Begging for votes"?

If his answer be in the negative, must we then take it for granted that he does not deem himself worthy of those whom he is aspiring to represent in the Legislative Body of St. Croix.

QUERENT.

Voters of Christiansted, REMEMBER when you are going to put that significant X it must be for our two independent candidates W. Abramson and Anthon Teytaud, don't let canvassers from any other quarter persuade you by holding up invisible Platforms like harbour improvements and attempts to keep off steamers from our harbour, better roads, (leave that to the party that originated it, they will settle that), don't let the Council be a Bolsheviki Council, we do not want the Labour Union removed to Government House, that old barrel they call "Labour Union" is splitting fast, remember the Labour Union's motto: "United we stand, divided we fall". (Aint they falling? We do not tolerate anything pertaining to division within our steady circle of C. C. members, they have proved faithful; of course it never suit the B. P.—We should worry—The B. P. (you know—Bolsheviki Party) have played a bad hand in these islands since its birth. Shake off that funny feeling of yours, brother voter; stick yourself with a pin if necessary to get awake to the fact that the X is for Abramson and Teytaud. Hold that pencil firm and when the B. P. play their favorite tune "The worst is yet to come" sign your cross for Abramson and Teytaud and you are one better.

The Coming Elections

To the Editor "The Avis."

Dear Sir:

What seems peculiar in connection with the present preparations for elections, is that, although we are within but nine days of the day appointed, yet up to this not one Candidate (the new men particularly are meant) has taken a stand, or announced to the people publicly his views, ideas or intentions: his platform, as the term implies.

It might be all very well for matters to proceed in this unaccustomed style, were there not any questions on the tapis of other than the most ordinary nature, but with (as the case is) subjects of vital importance one at least of which affects directly the interests of the people of the Town which these men are supposed to represent, the situation presents quite a different aspect, and we are forced to enter a protest against this unconventional mode today so different from the custom of past times.

Does this Mr. Editor, this innovation, cover plot intended to delude the unwary of our people into accepting a bitter pill for a sugarplum.

I am surprised to see our People's Man of "The Herald", our most worthy friend who holds down the Editorial Chair of your cotem, keeping aloof at this time. I hope that the "Icy Shoulders" of a section of those of whom no better was expected, seeing of what stamp they are has not caused him to become too "frigid" himself inasmuch as to neglect the cause which on his honor he must advocate: but that he will like a Giant refreshed with wine, issue forth and sound the timbrel on behalf of the masses, the condition of which has today enabled them to send forward men to legislate and be on the alert for the good of their hearths and homes.

Yours faithfully

VENTOSUS.
