"The Man Beneath."

Featuring:

Famous Sessue Hayakawa as Dr. Chindi Ashutor*The Story:

When the bride, Mary Erskine's wedding trousseau is in the making, and the horizon suggests nothing but sunshine, a shadow appears in the ghost of a youthful folly of the bridegroom, James Basset. He is summoned by the Italian Black Hand Society, to which, for the sake of adventure, he has allowed himself to become attached, and which has chosen him to commit a murder.

The meeting of Basset with Ashutor about the time when The Black Hand Gang have rounded him up for failure to do their bidding, results in the clever manipulation of matters by the Hindu, who accompanies Basset on his homeward journey, as his servant.

While on the voyage, trailed by the secret agents of the society, Ashutor uses his Hindu Magic to put Basset to sleep. When Basset is folded in his winding sheet Ashutor substitutes a dummy, which is buried at sea, and thus frustrate the plans of The Black Hand.

COME ONE. COME ALL.

Principal speaker JOHN E. KEASER.

It is now learned that the Navy Band is to be transferred to Haiti in a month or so. Thus the island will have no active musical organization at this end. The reason alleged for this radical deprivation of the two Navy Bands is that there shall not be more than one band attached to the naval organization of the governor of the Virgin Islands. It is much to be regretted that since that has been discovered so late, the rule could not be waived altogether.

The U. S. S. "San Loui" from Porto Rico with Col. Sanford aboard arrived here yesterday in connection with investigation of the harbor improvement scheme. A sample of the reef rock will be blasted and sent on for inspection it is stated.

St. Thomas News.

Rumor has it that a thief has been abroad now for several nights past. This morning at an early hour he was in the "Garden" vicinity. We hope that our "cops" will soon effect a capture. —St. Thomas Mail Notes, Jan 17th.

A thief was seen last night at the residence of Mr. Isaac Peterson, in Smith Bros. store yard, an old employee of the Harbour Department. This took place at 11 o'clock, when Mr. Peterson happened to be on duty on the wharf, Mr. Peterson put on the light and he scampered away after he gave the alarm. He was around with implements for brocking doors. —St. Thomas Bulletin, Jan. 15th.

This morning about 3.15 o'clock a report of 4 revolver shots was heard in the vicinity of Bjerre Gade School. —St. Thomas Bulletin, Jan. 17th.

Our reporter had an interview with some coal burners from Tortola and was informed that they receive 75 cents a bag in Tortola and $1.25 in St. Croix and that a great number of the burners have gone to Macoris, that stand to reason why we don't get a large quantity here. We have been informed that parties are asking as high as $1.50 per bag. —Ibid.

Supply Officer, Lieutenant Cronin who by the way, is a great friend to the bandsmen, had sailing conditions well arranged, and took exceptional interest in having them well placed and cared for during their voyage.

These Navy Bands of the Virgin Islands are much thought of by the American Officers and their families as well as by the enlisted men who have been among them here. The bands have been carefully trained by Bandmaster Adams whose work in that direction has had special recognition by the Navy Department at Washington.

Bandmaster Adams was recently given a permanent appointment as Bandmas-
