

"Just took it," replied the boy. "The jeweler wasn't looking. To quote your own admirable expression: 'If we have the power who shall deny us the right?'"

Jenkins kicked his chair over and strode to the front door. When he returned he held a tattered red flag in one hand and a picket from the fence in the other. His face was white and there was a steady light in his eye.

"I've had a plenty," he announced. "I started this thing, and I take the blame. But what I start I finish. Either this family, here and now, severally and individually, renounces its allegiance to any doctrine, creed or folly that is now or hereafter may be associated with the color of red and here and now pledges itself to honor and respect the decent Americanism that has made us a nation or I shall consider it my duty as a man and a citizen of this glorious republic to lick hell out of everybody present."

And then the Jenkins family rose and fell on his neck and wept and explained away the things that had affrighted him, and there was great joy in that household.

The following morning as Jenkins approached the factory a hairy little man whose name ended in "vitch" took him by the arm and said:

"Ah, comrade, the day of our deliverance is near. Last night I began work on a bomb."

And Jenkins, newborn American, swung a good American hip and kicked the embryo murderer seventeen feet to a gutter.—Saturday Evening Post.

UNEQUALLED IN TONE:

The Exquisite beauty of tone of this instrument sets it on a pinnacle by itself. Sonora is the nearest approach to perfect sound reproduction so far achieved. You do not care so much WHY this is so, but you are most emphatically interested in knowing that it is so.

To demonstrate to you the remarkable superiority of the Sonora, we ask you to hear the Sonora, in comparison with others. You will decide that it is unequalled for beauty.
