LOCAL

Attention is invited to the address printed in this issue which was presented to Mrs. A. E. Jensen by the primary Sunday School class which she has superintended during her residence here.

At the song service in the Lutheran church on Sunday night Mr. A. S. Forbes, leader of the Industrial Band, and two other members of the band assisted in the musical part of the service by playing "Home Sweet Home" and "God be with you till we meet again". The service was brought to close by the singing of "Shall we meet beyond the River."

The Colonial Council meeting of yesterday was postponed, as understood, at request of Government.

St. Mary's Hall is advertising Bill Apperson's Boy featuring Jack Pickford in a 6 reel role depicting life in the hills of Kentucky for this evening.

The s. s. "Parima" for New York is due at Frederiksted at 9 o'clock on Friday morning.

"Handcuffs or Kisses." the drama presented at the Christiansted Theatre last night was without exaggeration one of the finest screened in this island, and ought to have been seen by a larger audience. At times sad and heartrending, then mirthful, this grand picture kept one spellbound from start to finish. It is suggested that same be repeated so that this treat may be more widely enjoyed.

The Factory Sugar Price

was fixed yesterday at 5½ lbs. sugar to 100 lbs. canes 40,78 cents per % and 6 lbs. sugar to 100 lbs. canes 44,49 cents per %.

TO OUR BELOVED SUPERINTENDENT MRS. ANTON E. JENSEN.

It is indeed with sorrowful hearts that we are called up to bid you farewell on the eve of your departure for your home in the States.

For the nine months you have labored among us you have always shown a deep and sincere interest both in the work of the church and Sabbath School as also the children entrusted to your charge of whom you proved a most efficient and kind hearted Superintendent and by your loving disposition you have gained from us our sincere love and esteem and we beg to assure you that your good teachings and interest in our welfare will never be forgotten.

Sad as it is to bid you farewell we feel that your health demands a change of climate which we trust that by God's help you will find in your native clime, and our earnest prayer is that God's blessings may ever attend you, and that you may soon be restored to your perfect health.

In conclusion we beg of you to accept the accompanying gift as a small token of our esteem and love.

While we have the honor to subscribe ourselves,

The teachers and scholars of the Primary Class of the Lutheran Sabbath School:

Editor "St. Croix Avis".

Dear Mr. Editor:—

I note that you have me as a candidate for election for Frederiksted town. Perhaps your reporter overheard a conversation which took place yesterday in which I said, when asked if I intended to run for the Council, that I would not oppose Dr. Canegata who had so faithfully and honorably served the constituents of this district; and again, when asked if I would run for Frederiksted, that I would only do so if the voters in Frederiksted wanted me to represent them. I have had no such request as yet, and therefore cannot be considered a candidate.

Very truly yours

D. HAMILTON JACKSON.
