ORDER

BEFORE THE COURT is the trial in this matter currently scheduled for August 23, 2021. For the reasons stated herein, the time to try this case is extended up to and including November 8, 2021.

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Chief Judge of the District Court of the Virgin Islands entered a general order concerning operations of the Court on March 17, 2020. The Chief Judge has thus far extended the order fifteen times, finding that the ends of justice require excluding March 18, 2020, through August 31, 2021, from the Speedy Trial count in all criminal matters.

To date, the COVID-19 virus has claimed more than 623,000 lives in the United States (41 of which have been in the U.S. Virgin Islands). COVID-19 continues to present an unpredictable threat to public health and safety, as shown in the recent surge in COVID-19 cases both in the continental United States and the Virgin Islands. As such, the Court finds that extending the period within which Defendant Turnbull may be tried under the Speedy Trial Act is necessary for the protection and well-being of the Defendant, the jury, the prosecutors, the witnesses, the Court's personnel, and the general public at large.<sup>1</sup>

The premises considered, it is hereby

<sup>1</sup> The Speedy Trial Act also excludes "[a]ny period of delay resulting from other proceedings concerning the defendant, including . . . (D) delay resulting from any pretrial motion, from the filing of the motion through the conclusion of the hearing on, or other prompt disposition of, such motion. . . ." 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1).
