EDITORIAL.

The marriage of Mr. Henry Watson and Miss Isabelle Schmiegelow was solemnized by the Revd. H. M. Pigott in St. John's Church, this town, on Wednesday evening, 5th instant, in the presence of a large gathering of guests and spectators. The bride is the second daughter of the late Administrator and Mrs. Schmiegelow, and the bridegroom is a son of the late Canon and Mrs. Watson all of whom are well known in this community.

The happy couple are spending their honeymoon at Estate Shoys. This paper offers congratulations and best wishes for a long and prosperous union.

TONIGHT'S BOXING.

At the Theatre tonight, our local representative "slugger" will meet "BONEY" the famous West Indian Champion in the roped-Arena in a return match. Exactly a week ago these two muscularly strong and well developed men faced each other for the first time at West End before a packed house as we have been reading, and the visitor after four hard rounds won the decision of the officials, which was well received by the entire audience. The "Big Slugger" got in some very hard and good ones on the "Champ." who proved himself to be made of - if we should be plain some other flesh than the ordinary human being. Boney's hardness is one of his strong forts not to mention his fastness and two right hands which he uses with ease. Brooks to whom we must turn our attention, is undoubtable above the ordinary local hitters. He is perfectly built and unveiled his knowledge of his fisticuff ability which gained him many supporters at West End a week ago. He has been keeping in training and we are sure that he is in to give "Fighting Boney" a hard fight and a score of K. O. wouldn't surprise many of us for no one could know what can happen. Kid Albert of Frederiksted who has been training partner to Cornelius and had his hand hurt, will meet Kid Frederick one of our stars.

Fedilis Conton owing to a bad finger is unable to put on the gloves at present. We anticipate an enthusiastic crowd will be there at the Theatre tonight to see the struggle for victory between the gladiators.

RED CROSS SEWING COMMITTEE.

Every Wednesday afternoon, the Red Cross rooms under the Post Office in Christiansted are open for sewing for the sick and poor. Any member who
