FROM THE POLICE.

THE attention of all owners and drivers of low carts, porters, and cartmen in the Island of St. Croix is hereby called to the following paragraphs of the Ordinance of 15th May 1875 concerning Porters and Cartmen.

Paragraph 17th.

"Carts must always be loaded in a proper manner, so that there be no danger of their being upset, or of their dropping the load, or of their breaking down on the way, of their causing damage or inconvenience to the traffic, or to passers by. No cart-load with one horse, must, without special permission, be of a greater weight than 800 lbs. on level ground, and half of that weight up-hill.

Paragraph 18.

"The Police may cause vehicles (carts, horses, and harness) to be examined at any time, in order to ascertain whether they are in a state suited to the requirements and safety of the public, and adapted to the other considerations that must be observed. If any portion of the vehicle be found incomplete, or out of order, the Police will give the necessary injunction, which must always be obeyed without delay; the Police may also, if considered necessary, prohibit further use for a time, or permanently, of the vehicle, either the whole or any part thereof, and the parties are further more liable to other responsibility according to law, especially the enactments concerning punishment for ill-treatment of animals, and to the forfeiture of their license".
