Lausanne, Nov. 30th.—After verbally protesting today to the representatives of the Entente countries against the decision to keep Russia out of the Near East conference, except with respect to the Dardanelles, M. Rakovsky asked the conference, not to begin the negotiations on the Straits tomorrow, as arranged. M. Tchitcherin, Russia's chief delegate, will not arrive here before tomorrow night, and M. Rakovsky requested postponement until Monday, of the Straits question, mainly because he wants the Soviet Foreign Minister to be present. He informed Lord Curzon, M.
Barrere and the Marquis Di'Garoni that Russia was not content with the Allies' decision to keep her from participation in all deliberations of the conference.
The official reply to the Russian petition contended that the invitation originally extended to Russia, clearly explains that Russia was bidden to Lausanne only for the Straits negotiations, and that therefore there was no possible basis for a misunderstanding. On the different aspects of this question, the Russian delegates would be given every opportunity to make known their views. The former Grecian Premier M. Venizelos, who is continuing his official conference activities without his position being affected by the Grecian executions, attended the meeting of the sub-commission on the Ottoman debts this afternoon. Without mincing words, he told the delegates that Greece was ruined and could not pay a farthing of the Turkish liabilities. The conference had been planning to apportion the debt between Turkey and her former possessions, and M. Venizelos was endeavoring to make it clear that Greece could not shoulder any debt for Western Thrace. "We might have taken our share of this debt after the treaty of Sevres was signed", he said, "but the Asia Minor campaign has made us bankrupt."

Athens, Nov. 30th.—Inquiry into responsibility for the Anatolian disaster continues and the arrest of General Papoulas and other officials was due to new evidence said to have been found.
The commission of inquiry has forwarded the report of its investigations into the actions of Prince Andrew during the campaign, to the revolutionary cormittee, which, in conjunction with the Greek Govt., will make arrangements for his trial. The following official statement was issued today: "General Doits-mania, former chief of the General Staff and General Valettas, former Chief of Staff in Asia Minor, have been arrested and a warrant has been issued for the arrest of General Papoulas, former Commander-in-Chief of the army in Asia Minor. The trial of Prince Andrew, brother of Ex King Constantine, who commanded an army corps at the time of the Sakaria operations, begins next week.

Rome, Dec. 1st.—The Vatican is to make a direct protest to the Greek Govt. against the execution of the former Greek Ministers. Pope Pius has ordered the Papal Nuncio at Berne to make representations to M. Venizelos of the Greek delegation at Lausanne, against further execution of former public officials in Greece.

London, Nov. 30th.—An Exchange Telegraph despatch from Rome says Premier Mussolini informed the Italian Cabinet today that he planned to protest to the Greek Government against the wholesale executions of former public men. His protest would be on purely humanitarian grounds.

Washington, Dec. 1st.—So close and doubtful is the Senate situation on the subsidy bill that Republican leaders have undertaken a new canvass to find out whether the measure, if voted on, could command a majority. Tactics of the opposition will be to prevent a vote before March 4th., but if they become convinced
