St. Thomas News

The New Year was ushered in on Sunday morning by a salute from the station ship "Vixen", the blowing of their syrens by the steamers in the harbor, and the ringing of church bells. It was an impressive moment as everybody united in gladly hailing the dawn of the New Year. St. Thomas Mail Notes, Jan. 3rd.

Wesleyan Church last evening where the opening service of the Week of Prayer was held.

A pleasing and beautiful feature of the service was the uniting of the various choirs. The speakers were Rev. Folensbee and Mr. Tibbitts.

What promises to lend much interest to the meetings is the fact that this year there are several new speakers in whom the community feel some interest, namely, Mr. Tibbitts, Chaplain Steiner and Mr. Pfau. — Ibid.
