REAL PROPERTY WHERE AND TO WHOM ASSESSED.

Section 25.—All real property shall be assessed in the assessment district in which the real property lies to the person who is either the owner or in possession thereof on the fifteenth day of January, and the person appearing of records on the fifteenth day of January shall be held to be the true owner thereof. No deduction shall be allowed on account of any debt secured by mortgage, conditional sale, contract or other obligation upon said real property and taxes so levied shall be a lien upon the property.

PROPERTY NOT ASSESSED TO BE RE-PORTED.

Section 26.—It shall be the duty of every person owning property liable to taxation under the laws of the Municipality which has not been assessed for taxation, or which has escaped assessment or taxation for any year, to report the same to the assessor of his assessment district.

PENALTY FOR FAILURE.

Wilful failure on the part of the owner of such property to make return thereof as herein provided, shall be deemed a misdemeanor.

OATH OF TAXPAYER.

Section 27. Every person liable to taxation under this Ordinance shall, at the time of returning the list or schedule provided for in section 22 to said assessor, take and subscribe an oath to the following effect:

"I....., being duly sworn, say that to the best of my knowledge, information and belief, the foregoing statement contains a full, true and complete list of all property held or belonging to me (or to me as a partner, or in my possession as trustee, administrator, guardian committee of a lunatic, or agent) in the Municipality of..... and that such property has been fully and fairly described and its true condition and value represented; and that all interrogatories relating thereto have been fully and truthfully answered; that I have in no case sought to mislead said assessor as to the quantity or quality of said property; that I have not, directly or indirectly, converted or exchanged any of my property for the purpose of evading the assessment thereof for taxation into non-taxable property or securities of any kind.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this....day of.....19.....

.....
Assessor.

CHANGES IN ASSESSMENT.

Section 28.—It shall be the duty of each assessor when he makes any change in the existing assessment of the property of any taxpayer, or whenever he assesses the property of a taxpayer not previously assessed, or whenever he makes any change in the list and assessment of property as returned by a taxpayer where such taxpayer has been called upon to fill in his schedule showing his property subject to taxation, to make out a written or printed notice of such action, which he shall serve upon said taxpayer by leaving a copy thereof with said taxpayer, or any member of his family or attendant of legal age, or with the person in charge of said property, or if it is not possible to make service in such way, by transmitting such copy by registered mail to such owner or person in charge of the property, and unless said person, or an authorized agent of said person, shall appeal from such assessment to the permanent board of review and equalization, as hereinafter provided, such assessment shall be final and binding.

LOCAL.

The S. S. Guiana for New York is due at Frederiksted on Thursday morning, the 7th inst.

The S. S. Parima is expected to leave New York to-day.

The Creole sailed for St. Thomas very early this morning and carried mail and passengers. She will return probably with some of the St. Thomas excursionists for the Mannings Bay races. The yacht Zuran which was scheduled to make a trip over on July 3rd, sustained the loss of her boom in a collision with the Virginia and it is uncertain if she will be coming any more on that account.

NOTICE.

ON Monday July 4th. this office will be closed at 9 a. m., but mail for dispatch that evening by Creole deposited in the mail slot before 4.30 p. m. will be made up and forwarded.

TELEGRAMS.

ST. CROIX STATION.

Rome, June 28th.—The volcano of Stromboli, situated on the island of the same name, off the northern coast of Sicily, has burst into activity. The eruption began with a violent explosion, which was heard far from the island and the people are abandoning their homes and fleeing to Sicily.

Halifax, N. S., June 28th.—The news that His Grace the Archbishop Worrell has resigned the Archbishopric of Nova Scotia, this to become effective in the fall, probably after the meeting of the general synod in October, will be received with regret inexpressible, throughout the borders of the diocese. He has accepted the Bishopric for Bermuda.
