EDITORIAL.

Today we publish the complete advertisement for tonight's entertainment at the Christiansted Theatre and would invite the attention of all our readers, and patrons of that popular amusement resort, to the attractive features of the programme. We feel that the management of the Theatre certainly deserves great credit for staging such a grand performance, and we are sure the public will evince full appreciation by turning out not alone in large numbers but in time to obtain seating accommodation with facility. It is understood that no time was lost in getting in touch with the West Indian champion pugilist "Fighting Boney" and his sparring partner "Kid Cornelius", a son of the soil lately from New York on a visit, and although the boxers are not matched because of the difference in weight, still we are confident that their meeting in the roped arena will afford the sport-loving fraternity of this place an idea of modern boxing, known all over the United States as the manly art of self-defence.

The screening of the sensational drama entitled "The Love Call", and slides showing life in German prison camps, more than justify the claim of terming tonight's entertainment a "rare treat".

night? This is a fighting chance for some of the St. Croix champions such as Messrs. Christian Francis, David Cummings, Fidelis Conton, Jackson and others to give us an exhibition in the roped arena. Come out Boys. "Fighting Boney" will certainly give you a chance.

A RETIRED CHAMPION.

St. Thomas News

We chronicle the death that took place last evening, at 8.30 o'clock, of our well-known and esteemed friend in his life—Geo. B. Blake, leaving four daughters and a son to mourn their loss.

Mr. Blake was born in St. Croix in the year 1850, and when quite a lad came to St. Thomas. He soon entered the firm of G. W. Smith of this island, where he served for quite a considerable length of time. Soon after he became a stevedore, and next we found him an auctioneer.

Deceased was for many years a member of the Colonial Council of this Muni-
