

CHRISTIANSTED THEATRE

8.30 THURSDAY EVENING 8.30

"The Spitfire Of Seville."

Universal Special in 6 Reels.

CAST:

EDDA NOVA.	F. DUMAS.
THUSTAN HALL.	LEO MALNEY.
CLAIRE ANDERSON.	ROBERT BRAY.
MARIAN SKINNER.	EDGAR ALLEN.

Story by:

Joseph Francis Poland

A wonderful story of life in Sunny Spain with HEDDA NOVA as Star. A charming story with Picturesque effects and alluring atmosphere dealing with Romance of a Spanish Senorita and an American artist. Why did they call her "The Spitfire of Seville?" If you witness this attractive photoplay you will see how she lived up to her nickname.

The story is told in Spain, the land of longorous and star-shot nights—of adventure and romance, the land of mountain fortresses, where men may hide secure, the land of old Seville drowsing in the sun-glow.

Show concluding with:

"The Tea Hound"

1 Reel Comic.

Editor "St. Croix Avis".

Dear Mr. Editor:—

It will probably interest yourself and friends of our young men who have been conspicuous in the field of sport here and are now abroad to learn that I have received a letter from Mr. Antonio Alexander in which he tells of the organization among Cruzians in New York of an athletic club named the "Hero Athletic Club" the games of which are football, cricket, and basketball. At a meeting held on the 28th ultimo, Mr. Arthur Brady was elected president and Mr. Alexander secretary and treasurer of the club of which they together with Mr. Michael Brady were
