Section, 20.—Commission merchants and all persons dealing and trading on commission, assignees authorized to sell, and persons having in their possession property belonging to another, subject to taxation in the assessment districts, where said property is found, shall for purpose of taxation be deemed the owners of the property in their possession.

ASSESSMENT ROLL, HOW PREPARED.

Section 21.—So much of the property of any manufacturer, merchant or tradesman as may consist of stocks of material or merchandise shall be listed separately and assessed upon its average market value during the year next preceding the time of assessment; and the assessor may in assessing such stock require of such manufacturer, merchant or tradesman to produce the last inventory thereof and if in the judgement of the assessor the same is not correct, or if such time has elapsed since the inventory was taken that it shall have ceased to be reliable as to the value thereof, and such manufacturer, merchant or tradesman should not produce a new inventory within ten days thereafter, or if the assessor does not consider the last inventory to be reliable then the assessor shall appraise the said stock by personal examination.

ASSESSMENT ROLL HOW PREPARED.

Section 22.—The assessment of property, as the same appears on the taxroll last prepared, shall, after it has been corrected, amended and revised, as herein provided for, constitute the assessment roll for the next calendar year.

ASSESSMENT SCHEDULE HOW AND WHEN PREPARED.

That as soon after January fifteenth of each year, as is possible, it shall be the duty of the assessor of each assessment district to fill out an assessment schedule showing in detail each separate piece of real property and improvements thereon, and in as great detail as is practicable all personal property subject to taxation within the Municipality belonging, on January fifteenth, to each taxable person whose property, in the opinion of the assessor, should be revalued or re assessed for purposes of taxation, or the revaluation of which has been requested by the owner thereof or by the municipal authorities of the Municipality in which said property is located, or by any citizen of the Municipality. Where the same person owns taxable property in more than one assessment district.

TAXABLE PERSON TO MAKE RETURNS.

The assessor may deliver such blank schedule or schedules, to which may be attached such interrogatories as he deems necessary in order to secure discovery of taxable property and its value, to any taxable persons in his assessment district, or to any adult member of his household or business establishment, and require said taxable person to issue and make the proper receipt for such schedule and return the same to him, properly filled out, within a period not to exceed ten days, and it shall be the duty of said taxable person to make upon said schedule or schedules, a complete return and full valuation of all the real and personal property owned, held or possessed by him and liable to taxation, and return the same to said assessor within the period of time hereinbefore appointed. Every partnership, concern, trustee, administrator, guardian, agent and every person having any manner of title, either legal or equitable, or having possession of, holding or claiming in any manner anything required to be returned in said form or schedule shall be held subject to the provisions of this Ordinance and shall be required to make return upon said schedule as herein provided. Whenever property is owned, held or possessed by more than one person as administrator, executor, trustee or in any other fiduciary or representative capacity, any one of them may make the oath required by section 27 of this Ordinance, and every schedule of copartnership property shall be sworn to by at least one member of the copartnership. The assessor, however, shall not be bound in any manner by the list of property or the value placed thereon as thusreturned by a tax payer, but shall proceed upon the information thereby obtained, and such other information as he may be able to obtain, to assess the property at its actual value, without looking to a forced sale, according to his best information and belief.

Correspondence

To the Editor of the St. Croix Avis.

Dear Sir:

By the favorable circumstances of his situation: Mr. Fair Play has discovered me, and by the Mysterious Moving of a Good and Wise Providence. I have identified him. It is evident that, I inadvertently entered the Lion's den, and have trodden upon the toes of a cub; yet my position being a right one, I must not be deterred by the growl of one of an angry few who will justify his position by worn-out hobbys of an untenable other side of the question; or by low innuendoes, in connection with which, gross ignorance of things natural and economic in other lands is fully manifest. I am wary because of the necessity for striking well and sure, and because the justice of our position (the consumers) demands that such exorbitance as we complain of should not be.

Yours gratefully
STUDIOUS OBSERVER
