

CAN YOU SEE AROUND A CORNER?

It Certainly Can Be Done. But Where?

on o withdraw all workers, including pumpmen and engineers, from the pits. Sir Robert Horne rejoined that this was a great decision and that he hoped that before adopting such a course the miners would reconsider it. He offered to meet the miners executives at any time tomorrow. The executives of the triple alliance made up of the miners, the railwaymen and the transport workers, held a private preliminary meeting today. They will reassemble tomorrow to discuss its course of action.

Birmingham, March 31st.—Mr. Austin Chamberlain, who recently was elected leader of the House of Commons, resigning the Chancellorship of the Exchequer on being appointed Lord Privy Seal, was formally reelected to parliament today from the west division of Birmingham. Mr. Chamberlain was unopposed at the polls. The changes in his official status necessitated his seeking reelection to parliament.

Berlin, March 31st.—That the Govt. believes the day of a Communist rising in Berlin is past is shown by the removal yesterday of the barbed wire barricades and the reopening of Wilhelm Strasse traffic as well as a marked reduction in the number of sentinels. The communists have failed to revail on the Berlin workers to strike.

London, March 31st.—The trial of war crime prisoners in Germany apparently has been further delayed, according to a despatch to the London Times from Berlin. Depositions by English witnesses, says the despatch have been found not to conform with the provisions of the German procedure. A member of the Govt. law office is to be sent to England at the end of April to participate in the hearing of witnesses in the three cases cited by the British Govt. for trial.

Havana, March 30th.—Jose R. Capablanca, the Cuban chess master, tonight defeated Dr. Samuel Lasher, the German expert in the fifth game of the world championship. The end of the game came after 46 moves. Tonight's game was the first decisive result of the tournament, the four previous games having been drawn.

Budapest, March 30th.—Count Stefan Betlen, fully empowered to act for the safety of the State as the plenipotentiary of Regent Horthy, has been sent to Steinamanger, the western Hungarian town near the Austrian border, where ex-emperor Charles has taken refuge after a vain attempt to regain the throne.

London, March 31st.—An Exchange telegraph despatch from Paris today says it is reported the majority of the Hungarian troops have rallied to the standard of ex-emperor Charles.

Vienna, March 31st.—The republicans in this city exultantly declare that the visit of Charles in Budapest and the fiasco attending his attempt to regain power have dashed whatever chance may have existed for the restoration of the monarchy, either in Hungary or Austria. Monarchists reluctantly admit that a restoration seems impossible.

Paris, March 31st.—Ex-emperor Charles crossed the frontier between Hungary and Austria on Saturday by producing a foreign passport, which represented him as a red cross official, says a Havas despatch from Vienna.

Rome, March 31st.—Count Sforza, Italian Foreign Minister has been informed by the Hungarian Minister to Italy that Admiral Horthy, Hungarian Regent, desires to keep his word, which was given the Allies, not to allow the restoration of the Hapsburgs in Hungary.

Berlin, March 31st.—Further long notes have been exchanged between the inter-allied commission and Germany in which the Allies claim that Germany has failed to complete the delivery of arms and material from fortresses and the German Govt. in detailed explanations claim it has retained only arms sufficient for an army of 100,000 and fortress materials absolutely necessary. Germany denies that she has infringed any of the provisions of the peace treaty relating to disarmament and fortresses and says that she is willing to submit any points at variance with the Allies to an impartial court of arbitration.

London, March 31st.—Sir Robert Horne, President of the Board of Trade, today succeeded Mr. Austen Chamberlain as Chancellor of the Exchequer.

Washington, March 31st.—Problems involving the collection by France of reparations from Germany were discussed by Viviani, envoy extraordinary from the French Republic, with Senator Lodge, Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, and other United States officials at a dinner tendered the former French Premier tonight by Ambassador Jusserand.

Athens, March 31st.—The Greeks have captured Avghin and held it against 22 Turkish counter-attacks, says the official communication issued today. Kovalitza also has been taken by the Greeks.

Paris, March 31st.—A decision was reached today by the financial commission of the League of Nations to send a commission to Austria consisting of three persons to investigate relief plans in that country. The investigation will cover a period of from 5 to six weeks. The decision was reached after Baron Eichhoff, the Austrian Ambassador to France, had addressed the Commission.

THE HOME PAPER

By 'X'

When the evenin' shade is fallin' at the endin' o' the day,

An' a feller rests from labor smokin' his pipe o' clay.

There's nothin' does him so much good, be fortune up or down,

As the little country paper from his ol' home town.

It's ain't a thing o' beauty, an' its print ain't always clean,

But it straightens out his temper when a feller's feelin' mean;

It takes the wrinkles of his face, an' blushes off his frown;

That little country paper from his ol' home town.

It tells of all the parties 'ar' bells of Pumpkin Row.

'Bout who spent Sunday with his girl, and how the crops will grow;

How it keeps a feller posted 'bout who is up an' who is down—

That little country paper from his ol' home town.

Now, I like to read the dailies, an' the story papers, too,

An' at times the yellow novels an' some other trash—don't you?

But when I want some readin' that will brush away a frown,

I want that little paper from my ol' home town.—Good Hardware.

THE RURAL EDITOR'S LOT.

A child is born in the neighbourhood; the editor gives the loud-lunged youngster and the happy parents a sendoff and gets $0.00. It is christened and the minister gets $5 and the editor $0.00. The editor blushes and tells a dozen lies about the beautiful and accomplished bride. The minister gets $10, and a piece of cake and the editor gets $0.00. In the course of time she dies; the doctor gets from $15 to $100, the minister gets perhaps another $5, the undertaker gets from $75 to $200, the editor prints an obituary two columns long and a card of thanks and gets $0.00. No wonder so many small town editors get rich. Have you paid your subscription.
