"Elmo Lincoln"

in

"Elmo The Mighty."

Episode No 5: "THE PHANTOM RESCUE".

Another exciting instalment, which deals with Lucille's effort to remain in her home which has been taken over by her enemies. She insist upon her rights, but during the night "Black" Rawdon invades the premises. Lucille battles with him, but is saved only by the timely arrival of Elmo. They slip away in an automobile, closely followed by the gang.

Episode No 6. "THE PUMA'S PAW".

This Episode opens with a struggle between Elmo and his enemies on a cliff. Lucille is pursued by a black bear and forced into the hands of the gang through this danger. Both Elmo and Lucille are taken to an obscure cabin, where a wild puma is turned loose on Elmo and the episode winds up with a real thrill.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COLONIAL COUNCIL FOR ST. CROIX.

2nd Member for Christiansted Town (Canegata) remarked: Mr. Chairman. The procedure here today is unprecedented. There are some members here who are many years in this Council and I am here to hear their opinion whether they have ever seen anything like this in the Council.

The Chairman remarked: A three-quarter vote is necessary to proceed further on this matter.

2nd Member for Christiansted Town (Canegata) said, -If a three-quarter vote is to be taken on this matter I move that it be taken by roll-call.

2nd Appointed Member (Noll): All right. I am willing to withdraw my motion.

2nd Member for Frederiksted Country District (M. M. Skeoch): Do I understand that the motion which the vote is now to be taken is to dissolve the Committee?

The Chairman answered: Yes

3rd Appointed Member (Armstrong) would like to know if the Committee is dissolved what next?
