Riga, April 25th.—Advices from Moscow state that Lenine was operated upon successfully yesterday for the removal of a bullet carried in his body for the past three years.

London, April 25th.—Mr. Child, the United States Ambassador to Italy, has notified the Genoa Conference the United States reserves all rights on the payment of war debts due from Russia, according to the Genoa Correspondent of the "Evening Standard." These debts include the loans of private bankers and advances to the Korensky Govt.

Genoa, April 25th.—The Russians claim that the peace treaty between Russia and Poland covers all the relations between the two countries, so that Poland, like Germany, should not participate in the discussion of Russian affairs. The remonstrances of the Russians are regarded here as equivalent to a threat against both France and Poland, taking into consideration the strong Red army encamped near the Polish border. Experts on the Russian question are sitting without the Soviet delegates today and are comparing notes. They agree on the version of what happened at Monday's session, when the Russians presented their demands, and have decided to forward their report to their respective governments, and it is expected that when answers are received from the various capitals, the powers will submit counter-propositions to the Bolsheviks, couched in formal language in an endeavour to reach a working basis for an accord. Despite the latest crisis, rendered serious by M. Poincare's recent speech, optimism prevails among a ma-
