LOCAL.

The show at the theatre last night was well attended and the film gave promise of becoming more and more interesting and exciting. As had been pre-arranged and announced, a review of Red Cross activities in and for this island was a feature of the evening. Mr. R. W. Skeoch addressing the audience in place of the chairman, Mr. F. Coulter, who was absent through illness. Mr. Skeoch recounted details to show that the money collected here by the Red Cross was actually used in the island, and encouraged all those who might be otherwise impressed to be convinced of the fact and join in making the present drive a successful one. Mrs. Hark who is one of the campaigners was in the audience he said and would receive subscriptions last night.
