EDITORIAL.

We welcome Dr. J. R. Mayhew who returned here on Tuesday after several months' absence in the islands. He informs us that he will be leaving again for the islands about the middle of next month, thereafter for the States. As there are probably many who have been awaiting the professional services of our esteemed friend, they will embrace the opportunity of securing treatment while he is here.

LOCAL.

The Danish Club and Reading Society of St. Croix has become a Patron Member of the American Red Cross. The Santa Cruz Chapter may well feel pleased to have this second Patron Member to add to its splendid enrollment. The West Indian Sugar Factory, Ltd. took out a patron membership at Frederiksted.

The Vigilant which made a special run to St. Thomas on Tuesday night returned here yesterday afternoon. See notice in this issue regarding her departure.

The exhibition of the much advertised film "The Heart of Humanity" proved a great success at the Christiansted Theatre last night. The building was filled long before the show started and every seat, which had been engaged early in the day, was occupied as well as the standing room. The drama may be placed in the category of the best this popular place of amusement has screened up
