Manchester, June 17th.—Following the action of the United Textile Workers at a joint meeting accepting the employers offer for a settlement, the cotton strike in Lancashire was called off today. The settlement involves an immediate wage reduction and a further reduction at the end of six months. The textile workers association, which represents all branches of cotton operatives, voted for resumption of work 266 against 227, and arrangements are being made for a return to work next Monday.

London, June 17th.—The "Daily Express" intimates that the Prince of Wales will visit India during the coming season. Lord Reading, the viceroy of India, the paper says, has strongly recommended a visit as likely to have an excellent effect.

Paris June 17th.—Lord Curzon arrived here to confer with M. Briand relative to problems facing France and Great Britain. Great interest was taken in his visit to Paris in view of recent reports that Mr. Lloyd George was decided to confine his attention to home politics, leaving foreign affairs to Lord Curzon.

Berlin, June 17th.—The compulsory delivery of 2,500,000 tons of grain by Germany out of this years harvest is provided for in a bill adopted by the Reichstag today, after a stormy debate, the Bourgeois parties advocating the measure were solidly opposed by the three socialist factions. The latter demanding a national reserve stock of 4,500,000 tons which would amount to a continuation of
