Carmel Meyers "In Folly's Trail"

A STORY OF UNHAPPY WEDLOCK.

5 REELS

RICH IN HEART APPEAL! REplete WITH HUMAN DRAMA!

The Story:

Charles Howard, a young artist in "In Folly's Trail", is induced by a friend to attend a week-end party given by a millionaire social boulder named Max Goldberg. At this event he joins in the general round of elaborate dinners, masquerade dances and the like. He meets a girl singer named Lita O'Farrell, a friend of Goldberg's. The host of the occasion really loves Lita, but she is uncertain of her regard for him.

Lita is attracted to Howard and he to her. Though both are doubtful of the outcome, they marry. Howard cannot endure Lita's lack of breeding and she resents his cold, superior attitude.

They quarrel frequently and she offers him a chance for a divorce by deliberately going back to Goldberg.....come and see for yourself, it is a very fine picture, don't miss it.

Show commences with one reel screen magazine.

We hear much praise of the drama presented at the theatre on Monday evening. Everybody appears to be pleased with it, and would appreciate something similar in the near future.
