LOCAL

It will be noted that official announcement of the vacant seats in the Colonial Council with time limit for nomination of new members appears in this issue.

Mr. P. L. La Bega made a business trip to St. Thomas by the Marina on Sunday and is expected to return by the Guiana on Thursday.

The Factory Sugar Price remains unaltered at 5½ lbs. sugar to 100 lbs. canes 40.78 cents per % and 6 lbs. sugar to 100 lbs. canes 44.49 cents per %.

A burglary was committed at Estate Spanish Town in these days, quite a lot of valuable furniture being carried off. The thief has, however, been apprehended, convicted and sentenced to 100 days imprisonment and $500 fine.

CORRECTION.

In yesterday's issue, item re "Marina", a comma should be inserted after mails in the last line.

Item re election word "who" in last line should be whom.

Editor of the Avis.

Allow me space in your paper to address:

THE VOTERS OF CHRISTIANSTED COUNTRY DISTRICT

Unsolicited on my part, there has been tendered me through the columns of the press, the honor, in that I have been nominated as a candidate to fill one of two seats from the Christiansted Country District, in our Colonial Council.

Of this nomination I now announce my acceptance; and shall strive for election thereto, employing however, only every honorable means to that end.

Thanking those who deemed me worthy, and pledging to all the voters of said District the best of my ability, if I am elected.

Yours for united success,

O. C. GRANADY.

OFFICIAL NOTES.
