

SUPPLEMENT

TO ST. CROIX AVIS NO. 204.

CHRISTIANSTED, 6TH SEPTEMBER 1919.

WANTED TO KNOW

If Mr. Herman Hansen is an executive officer of the anti-dog-fight commission? If not, whence his authority for his Bolsheviki stunt in threatening to shoot dogs promiscuously combatting when he is on the scene? It is only natural that dogs, like the best of ourselves, will get to scrapping at times, and Mr. Hansen butting in on more than one occasion threatening to use firearms, bespeaks, we know not wether bluff or reason. Grrrrr.

BLUNK and BILTEN.

THE CHILDREN'S HOMES.

Because of the return to Denmark by the Deaconesses in charge, the Children's Homes were temporarily closed. Their re-opening takes place on Monday, September 8.

Miss Schoen is in charge. For several years she has been teacher in the public schools in the Middle West. For two years she has been engaged in kindergarten work in Porto Rico. For the past two months she has been in St. Croix preparing the Children's Homes for service. The house has been thoroly cleansed and painted with-in and without. Everything is spic-an-span, beds, bedding, furnishings and all.

A Deaconess from the Baltimore Mother House has accepted the call to come to Christiansted. She will arrive as early as possible. Meanwhile Mrs. Rev. G. W. Critchlow will assist as also will Miss Critchlow.

On Monday from 10.30 to 12 a. m. mothers may enroll, also from 1.30 to 3. p. m.

The Homes will be open to the public for visitation Monday evening from 7.30 to 9 o'clock. The special opening service will be at 8 p. m.

A cordial invitation is extended the friends of the Home to visit at the time of this opening. The Homes will try to become a Nursery and a Kindergarten besides being a home to the children admitted. Because of the diversified activities within the Homes there will necessarily be limitation to the number admitted. But in accepting the trust from the Queen Louise Society the United Lutheran Church consents that there will be no limitation as to creed.—Com.
