

CHRISTIANSTED THEATRE

8.00. THURSDAY EVENING 8.00

"BESSIE BARRISCALE" in "A TRICK OF FATE".

"BESSIE BARRISCALE" as MARY LEE.

"ANNA GERARD", WELL, WHO IS SHE?

CAN YOU FIND THAT OUT?

The Story:

Mary Lee, the daughter of a Southern gentleman of disabled fortune, is cruelly hurt when her father dies and is called a "crook" by a local banker to whom he owed $5,000. Mary assumes the debt, goes to New York to build up her fortunes sufficiently to pay it off. While her lover, Richard Crane, leaves for South America on an engineering project. Anna Gerard, the dancer, who startles the habitués of the Black Rat Cafe, with her startling costumes and mannerisms, is the exact double of Mary Lee. Struck by the dancer's possibilities, Raoul Gerson, an American theatrical manager, brings her to New York, where as "Zura" she gains reputation overnight. In a fit of temperament she declines to appear one night, and her frantic manager discovering Mary Lee, her double, on the street decides to palm her off as Zura. Mary accepts the offer on condition that Gerson pay her $5,000, the amount of her father's debt. Complications arise when the original Zura is murdered by an old flame, Pierre La Rouge, unknown to any one but Gerson. A body dressed in Mary Lee's clothes is found in the park and the police decide it is Mary Lee. Gerson installs the real Mary Lee in the dancer's apartments, exacting a promise that she will not disclose her identity. She is compelled to face unusual situations when John Wentworth, whom Zura was about to marry, and Crane, her lover, return. Wentworth, suspecting that Mary is not Zura, gets the police busy, and she is about to be arrested when Crane makes a false confession, taking the guilt upon himself. The truth is brought out at the finish.
