MAIL ROBBERS PAY WITH LIVES.

J. F. Kennedy, a notorious Missourian bandit, and Harvey Logan, his companion, were killed after robbing a mail train at Wittenberg, Mo. They had uncoupled the locomotive and taken it two miles down the track where they had an automobile waiting. As they ran for their car they were shot by two hiding officers who had previous knowledge of their plans.—The Patifinder, Nov. 25th.

SAILS WITHOUT HELMSMAN.

An American passenger ship recently sailed from New York to Cuba and back without any helmsman except when approaching harbors. It was steered by a mechanical device which operates on the gyroscopic principle. The device, which was invented by Elmer A. Sperry, inventor of the gyroscope, insures a mechanically perfect course and gives warning of forced deviations by ringing of a bell. Capt. Andrew Ashburn, in charge of the vessel, says that when they reached Cuba a native pilot became frightened and shouted to the officers that the ship would run aground.—Ibid.

OFFERS BABY FOR GOOSE.

An indication of the present poverty of the Hungarians was exemplified by a woman trying to sell her baby in the market of Budapest. She was offering to exchange the child for the price of a goose, and a man was bargaining with her when the police took her into custody. Extreme poverty was found to be the cause and she was turned over to a state charity organization. A different illustration of the rational poverty was remarked at the opera house, an old and famous institution. The girls in the ballet appeared with bare legs instead of in tights, and the inability to purchase that expensive wearing apparel was given as the reason for the seemingly increased abandon.—Ibid.

OF THE UNITED STATES, CHRISTIANSTED SUB
JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF
ARTHUR QUEALE, DECEASED.

CITATION.

TO THE HEIRS IN THE ESTATE OF
ARTHUR QUEALE AND OTHERS INTERESTED.

WHEREAS A. E. STAKEMANN, administrator of the estate of ARTHUR QUEALE, deceased, has made application for an order of sale of the following property, to wit: Estates CANAAN and BETTY'S JEWEL with livestock and implements, belonging to the said estate for the purpose of paying debts of the above entitled estate.

You are hereby cited to appear in the District Court of the Virgin Islands of the United States, sub judicial district of Christiansted on the 30th day of December A.
