Voters of Christiansted Town And Suburbs

Here Is The Red Hot Ticket For The Election

WILLIAM S. ABRAMSON. Merchant.
ANTHON TEYTAUD, Telegraphist.

Both men are independent. Now it's up to you to vote this ticket. Let this be sticker for the Chabert-Alexander party. It is a very bad thing to count Votes with pencil and paper; the Votes are what count. If the Chabert-Alexander party want to win let them get the votes.

ELECTOR.

To the Electorate of Christiansted Town & Suburb.

Mr. A. Teytaud is running on my ticket and as my associate in this election.

St. Croix, V. I. U. A. 4-25-21.
W. S. ABRAMSON.

A CARD.

The U. S. Navy Band begs to tender its farewell to friends in St. Croix, in view of the fact that it has been called to duty at St. Thomas indefinitely. It is however, hoped that they may return. The St. Thomians among them extend hearty thanks to the congenial people of this island with whom they have made many friends; and assure them of pleasant reminiscences of their beautiful island which has for a time been their home.

LOCAL.

The mail schnr. Mystery arrived at Frederiksted at 6 pm. Saturday but the mails reached here too late for delivery the same night and were distributed yesterday morning.

The Navy Band entertained a large section of the public with a grand farewell concert last night, terminating with a tramp around the town.

Remember tonight's continuation of the stirring serial The Lion Man. See programme in this issue.

Editor St. Croix Avis.

Dear Sir,

There appeared in your issue of Saturday an article relative to my position in the St. Croix Labor Union. I wish to state that this article was written without my knowledge, and further that I strongly disapprove of its contents.

Yrs. truly
