

CHRISTIANSTED THEATRE

8.30. THURSDAY EVENING 8.30.

"MRS." CHARLIE CHAPLIN (MILDRED HARRIES)

IN

"The Price of a Good Time"

7 REELS.

This 7 reel production is typical of the producer Lois Weber and is genuine throughout.

The beautiful "Mrs" Charlie Chaplin, is playing the main role, and the name alone is your guarantee enough for a good evening's entertainment; if you want to see a good picture you certainly have the opportunity here.

It might be nice and good to have a good time, but it all depends on the price to be paid for it; would you like to pay the same price for it as was paid in this picture?

As a big rush for tickets for this exceptional performance is expected, you are advised to secure your tickets today rather than tomorrow, if you wish to get a good seat.

ADMISSION:

Reserved Seats	40c.
Two first and two last rows of reserved seats	30c.
General Entrance	20c.
Children 20 and 10c.

Mr. Editor:

In your issue of today we read that from 31st inst. the supply of electricity for lighting will be discontinued.

In your editorial notes we read the reason and a rather partial comment from you.

I want to ask if Mr. Svendsen's other subscribers are bound to suffer because one—the Government or Municipal Committee—refuses to advance him more. What have other subscribers to do with one who will not meet demands especially when it be remembered that long before any Government contract was made with the Company, private subscribers supported the plant?

Such action is unfair and uncouth
