osity of Captain and Mrs. White, two huge freezers full of delicious ice cream were sent via Marine truck. Mr. Moyer, of the American Soda Fountain, sent a freezer full too, and cake galore—cake with pink frosting, and chocolate frosting, and white frosting, a piece or two for every boy and girl. They just had all the ice cream and cake they could hold.

But a Christmas would not be complete without old Santa Claus, and, true to form, he appeared—with his "tummy as big as a bowl full of jelly." Some of his little friends were not anxious to shake hands with him at first, but afterward they did. Some of the boys said that they knew him, but Santa Claus thinks that they were only guessing.

How those children did sing, "Onward Christian Soldiers!" It was fine indeed. After this song, they marched up to the trees where they were given the bags of candy and toys. The affair was beautifully successful and it was accomplished by plenty of hard work, some of the ladies worked a part of Christmas Day, and all of the day following. The reward came and it was enough; the satisfaction of seeing more than 200 children whose hearts had been made happy in this joyous season.—St. Thomas Mail Notes, Dec. 31st.

The American s. s. "Dade County," Capt. A. Gronli, from Bahia, Brazil, with general cargo for New York, arrived here on Tuesday the 30th. for bunker oil, supplied by the W. I. Co. Ltd. Apart from her regular crew, she had on board the crew (some 40 all told) of the American s. s. "Benvola", which was recently wrecked off the Brazilian coast with a cargo of 5000 tons petroleum in cases. The men have been taken care of here and are being housed, some at the Hotel American and others at the Grand.—St. Thomas Mail Notes Jan. 3rd.

The U. S. S. Gulfport is expected to arrive January 9. Two Navy officers and 50 enlisted Marines are on board for St. Thomas.—Ibid.
