PROPERTY IN LITIGATION, HOW ASSESSED.

Section 23.—Property in litigation to which the municipality is not a party shall be assessed to the person in possession thereof. If such property be on deposit with any administrative, judicial or municipal official it shall be assessed to such official, who shall dispose of sufficient quantity thereof to pay the taxes thereon, unless the taxes thereon be paid by some person possessing, acquiring or claiming a right, interest or title therein, in which case as to the amount paid such payment shall constitute in favor of such payor a prior lien on the property as against all claimants except the Municipality. Property commonly reputed to belong to the Municipality shall be assessed in the name of the Usufructuary thereof, if such there be, but such assessment shall not be held to impair the right, title or interest of the Municipality against all other property of such usufructuary. If the owner or claimants of any property not listed by another person is unknown, the assessor shall value and assess that property with a proper description thereof to "Owner unknown."

PERSONAL PROPERTY TO WHOM ASSESSED.

Section 24.—All personal property within or without the Municipality shall be assessed to the owner thereof in the assessment district in which he resides on the fifteenth day of January, except that such personal property as goods, wares merchandise, and other stock-in-trade, machinery employed in any branch of manufacturing or business, including machines leased or operated under a stipulation providing for the payment of a royalty; horses and other livestock, as all other personal property having a permanent location within any assessment district shall be assessed to the owner in the assessment district in which it is thus situated; and that shares of banks doing business in the Municipality shall be assessed to their owners in the Municipality where the banks are situated, as hereinafter provided.
