THE BOY RANGERS.

The Boy Rangers of America constitute an organization something on the order of Boy Scouts, but adapted to younger boys, from 8 to 12 years. The only group in Porto Rico is that of the Union Church which was organized last Fall, and has enjoyed a very vigorous existence since. The purpose is to help make young boys trusty, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean and reverent. There are 18 Rangers here including David Brown, Harwood Hill, George del Toro, Herbert Brown, Sherman Stearns, Warner Cryder, Alfred Robinson, Foster Nye, James Hutchinson, Langston Hutchison, Joseph Kennerley, Pascual Rivera, Pedro Rivera Paul, Tailbot, Roger Wall, Bryer Wall, Eugene Reed, and Jose Dorado.

Recently the Rangers observed what they called "Nail Week". They picked up all the rusty nails they found lying in the streets and their homes, and so removed a menace to the feet of barefoot children and to the tires of automobiles.

These sharp-eyed youngsters have collected the astonishing total of 3,155 nails, all of which upon their honor as Rangers they collected from places where they were likely to endanger people or autos. The largest number collected by any one boy was 1148. This huge number was found by Coleman Hull. The next largest number of nails was found by Bryer Wall. His total was 640.

So, in this and other ways, these Boy Rangers are learning to be thoughtful and helpful little citizens of this community.--Porto Rico Progress, March 01st.
