NEW VIRGIN ISLAND PROTECTIVE LEAGUE TO HOLD MASS MEETING.

(From our New York Correspondent)

The new Virgin Island Protective League with Mr. Max Smith as its President has issued circulars for a mass meeting on Sunday Dec. 4th. at St. Marks Hall.

A Mr. Baldwin said to be prominent as a Socialist here and very much interested in the League will be the principal speaker.

Miss Isabel George Chairlady of the Christmas Benefit Committee of the new Virgin Island Protective League has advised our correspondent that the contributions which are to be sent to the islands are coming in rather slow.

The express delivery company operated by Thomas and Thomas has forwarded a letter to Mr. Ashley L. Totten offering their service free of charge with which to send all packages to the islands which are to be distributed to the poor for Christmas. Mr. Totten sent the letter to the League, and has since learned that the results of his efforts are not appreciated by them.

TELEGR. MS.

ST. CROIX STATION.

London, Dec. 2nd.—It is understood that Mr. Lloyd George is planning to make his proposed trip to Washington on December 12th. in the belief that the apparent impasse in the Irish negotiations is one which time may help to solve. An eventuality which might conceivably offer greater obstacles to the Premier's early journey to the United States, is the necessity for France and Great Britain to formulate a clearer and more united policy regarding German reparations, which are understood to have reached an acute stage in France and to be fraught with many difficulties for M. Briand. What transpires when the French Premier reports to the Chamber of Deputies is considered more likely to determine Mr. Lloyd George's changes of adhering to his sailing plans, than the prospect of some new and decisive turn in Irish affairs. Government officials pointed out today that neither Ulster nor the Sinn Fein
