A Proclamation

BY THE GOVERNOR
OF THE
VIRGIN ISLANDS OF THE UNITED STATES.

SUNDAY THE FOURTEENTH DAY OF MAY, will be observed throughout the United States as "Mother's Day". Therefore, I, SUMNER E. W. KITTELLE, Governor of the Virgin Islands of the United States, do urge upon every person in the Virgin Islands, on that day, to render some fitting tribute to his or her mother, as the case may be, if such parent be still living or in case she has passed to the life beyond to devote a period of loving thought to her memory. To all of the clergy of the islands, I especially appeal, that they shall give to their respective congregations, on that Sunday, some counsel as to the loving and lofty influence which true motherhood has had upon world uplift.

SUMNER E. W. KITTELLE,
Governor.

CHRISTIANSTED THEATRE

8.15. THIS EVENING 8.15

"GLADYS WALTON" in "SHORT SKIRTS".

The picture is well photographed, the sets are good and there is a novel introduction which immediately puts the audience in good humor. After showing the clothes that grandmothers wore not so many years ago, there is a panorama of female "ankles", indicating the lapse of time and the increasing brevity of the skirt.

A Fascinating Story of a Lovable Girl in "Short Skirts".

Admirers of "Gladys Walton" will like her in "Short Skirts", her latest Universal Production; this goes both ways, for not only is she attractive in abbreviated dresses but the role presents her to advantage.

A ONE-EVENING PROGRAM.

GOVERNMENT OF THE
VIRGIN ISLANDS OF THE UNITED STATES
ST. THOMAS

Executive Order No. 2--1922.

WHEREAS, the present methods of slaughtering animals in the Virgin Islands for market purposes, are, in many instances unnecessarily cruel and inhumane; and

WHEREAS, the present method of tying animals in vehicles for transport to slaughter and for other purposes is likewise cruel and inhumane;

NOW THEREFORE, I, SUMNER E. W. KITTELLE, Governor of the Virgin Islands of the United States, do hereby direct that all animals must be quickly and humanely stunned before they are killed for the purposes above mentioned. And it is further directed that cruel methods of tying animals in vehicles for transport be not employed.

The Department of Police will have jurisdiction in the enforcement of this Order.

Witness my hand and the Seal of the Government of the Virgin Islands of the United States this fifth day of May nineteen hundred and twenty two.

SUMNER E. W. KITTELLE,
Governor.
