

CHRISTIANSTED THEATRE

8.00. MONDAY EVENING 8.00

6 REELS

6 REELS

JESSE D. HAMPTON Presents H. B. WARNER

in

"Uncharted Channels"

Not smashing—not shocking—but the deepest depth of sentiment runs through this Warner offering. The grief of a strong man, when his silence costs him sweet-heart and friends, is so ably pictured by Mr. Warner, that he is simply irresistible to the photo play patron. He is succeeded by a cast of unusual excellence and the production is another triumph.

Show concluding with 1 reel Current News.

ADMISSION

Reserved Seats..... 30 and 40c
General Entrance..... 20c.
Children 20 and 10c.

NOTICE.

THE Extraordinary Meeting convened by Government for MONDAY, June 6th, has been postponed at request of Government to MONDAY, June 13th., 1921, at ONE O'CLOCK P. M.

ROBT. L. MERWIN,
Chairman.

The Gospel Tabernacle.

SUNDAY, MAY 29TH.

Prayer Meeting 5 a. m.
Preaching Service 11 a. m. Speaker :
Rev. E. C. Phaire.
Sunday School 3 p. m.
Open Air Meeting 5 p. m. in Water
Gutt.
Special Lecture 7.30 p. m. Subj :
"Willevery one see Christ come? Refuting an article in "Signs of the Times" of May 10.

The general public are cordially invited.

C. S. MAYHEW,
Pastor.

LOCAL.

A notice issued at the post Office at 3.30 yesterday advised Mystery sailed from San Juan at 10 a. m. 27th. The mails should, therefore, not be looked for before this evening or tomorrow morning.

Monday being observed as a legal holiday, there will be no issue of this paper.

Correspondence

To the Editor of the St. Croix Avis.

Dear Mr. Editor:—

In reply to enquirer's letter in your issue of the 25th. inst. the Protestant Episcopal High Priest suggested that reference be made to a Dictionary.

Being also of an enquiring turn of mind, I referred to my Dictionary and found under the word "PONTIFICAL" the following :

PONTIFICAL (derived from the Latin PONTIFEX=bridge-builder) of or pertaining to bridge-building.

"Now far they brought the work by wondrous art Pontifical a ridge of pendent rock O'er the vex'd abyss."

Milton, Paradise Lost. X. 313

Perhaps the Rev. H. Pigott's bridge-builder is at present hard at work trying to bridge over the vexed and yawning abyss between the Protestant Episcopal Church of America and the Catholic Church of Rome.

Is this the Key ???

Yours with thanks,

"ANOTHER ENQUIRER".

Bassin May 27th 1921.

To the Editor of the Avis.

Dear Sir:—

The Rector is evasive, why lock up his answer in mystery, and send me to a Standard English Dictionary to search for a "Key"? A plain question deserves a plain answer, here it is, there is no such personage as a Pontiff of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the U. S. A., consequently also no Pontifical High Mass.

However, with some difficulty I obtained the work in question, a S. E. D.—, and seeking for his "Key". I looked up the word "Pontifical",—if I am mistaken the Rector is to blame—and the explanation given is "pertaining to the Pope". This is still more interesting. Now the Rector occasionally conducts services of prayer to the Virgin, celebrates Mass, and inferring from the above, now acknowledges the Pope. Between the Church of Rome, and the Church of England (of which St. John's P. E. C. is the American representative) there are three essential points of difference, the worship of the Virgin, "Transubstantiation" (the Mass) and the Supremacy of the Pope. Here we have a Protestant clergyman of the Protestant E. Church of the U. S. A., settling this great difference on the strength of his own initiative.

Truly this is sublime, if not the other thing:

One may well ask, "how can such such things be"?

They shouldn't.

ENQUIRER.

Frederiksted, St. Croix,
May 26th 1921.

W. H. Fleming Esq :

Dear Sir:—

Accept my sincere thanks for your eulogy touching the very little that I may have done for the upkeep of Horse racing, but please remember that until "Man" forgets the hollow shams and conventionalities of our day, and has a deep seated instinct for fairplay, could I ever hope to receive due appreciation for untiring efforts to accomplish some good.

Therefore, protempore, I shall ask you to excuse further comment on a subject whose merits or demerits will finally be evolved in the passage of Time.

Faithfully yours,

I. S. HODGE.

27 May 1921.

Mr Editor,

If "An Amused On Looker" will consult Webster's New International Dictionary of the English Language he will soon find reason for drooping his risibles.

HUBERT PIGOTT.

Football.

On Monday, MEMORIAL DAY, the Dreadnought Football Club will again line up against the Christiansted Athletic Football Club, both of this Town on the Holger Danske Ground.

Kick off at 4.30 p. m, precisely, also persons interested in the game are welcome to the Ground.

We hope the weather will favor the sport.—Com.