ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF FREDERIK WILLIAM HOWARD, DECEASED.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed administrator of the estate of FREDERIK WILLIAM HOWARD, deceased.

All persons having claims against the said estate are hereby notified to present same to the undersigned at his office No. 7-8 King Street in Christiansted, with the necessary proofs, within 6 months from the date of this notice.

Christiansted, St. Croix, V. I. U. S., this 11th day of April 1922.

A. E. STAKEMANN,
 Administrator.

LOCAL.

The entertainment by native performers at the theatre last night was a success, the audience being a large one and the program consisting of the various amusing and astonishing feats ably carried out. We desire to congratulate the promoters and others who contributed to the success of the evening, and would not hesitate to recommend them if they should decide to appear in public again.

The S. S. "Parima" arrived at Fred-eriksted yesterday afternoon and sailed again last evening. Twenty nine sacks of mail for this town were received and delivered after 4 p. m.

"Dad, Here's to You."

"We happened in a home the other night and over the parlor door the legend worked in letters of red, 'What is home without a mother?' Across the room was another brief, 'God Bless Our Home.'"

"Now, what is the matter with 'God bless our Dad?' He gets up early, lights the fire, boils an egg, and wipes off the dew of the lawn with his boots, while many a mother is sleeping. He makes the weekly hand-out for the butcher, the grocer, the milkman and baker and his little pile is badly worn before he has been home an hour. If there is any noise during the night, Dad is kicked in the back and made to go down stairs to find the burglar and kill him. Mother darns the socks, but Dad bought the socks in the first place, and the needles and the yarn afterward. Mother does up the fruit; well, Dad bought it all, and jars and sugar cost like the mischief. Dad buys chickens for the Sunday dinner, carves them himself, and draws the neck from the ruins after everyone else is served. 'What is home without a mother?' Yes, this is all right, but what is home without a father? Ten chances to one it is a boarding house, father is under a slab and the landlady

IN THE MATTER OF THE JOINT ESTATE OF EMILERIK SVITZER, DECEASED, AND HIS SURVIVING WIDOW MARIE J. SVITZER.

NOTICE is hereby given, that A. E. STAKEMANN, administrator of the above entitled estate, having filed in the District Court of the Virgin Islands of the United States his final account of the administration of the said estate, the hearing of the same has been fixed for TUESDAY the 16th day of May 1922 at 10 o'clock a. m. of that day at the Office of the Judge of said Court in the Town of Christiansted, Island of St. Croix, and all persons interested in the said estate are hereby notified then and there to appear and show cause, if any they have, why the said accounts should not be settled and allowed.

Christiansted, St. Croix, V. I. U. S., this 12th day of April 1922.

A. E. STAKEMANN,
 Administrator.

is the widow. Dad, here's to you; you've got your faults—you may have lots of 'em—but you're all right, and we'll miss you when you're gone.

"Later—Father's gone—but no boarding house is ours. For though poor Dad's under the slab he's still paying the bills—he was insured."—Metropolitan.

TELEGRAMS.ST. CROIX STATION.

Cape Verde Islands, April 7th.—In order to replenish their stock of fuel the Portuguese aviators plan to land at Saint Paul Rock, on their voyage to Brazil. The distance of the next flight will be one thousand miles, and from thence to Fernando do Noronho, three hundred miles.

London, April 7th.—Smiling cheerfully but unable entirely to conceal his careworn expression, Mr. Lloyd George
