LOCAL.

Owing to late arrival of the film for tonight's show the management was unable to advertise the programme earlier we are informed. It will be found in today's issue, and the attention of readers are invited to the attractiveness of same.

There will be a boxing exhibition at the West End Movies in Frederiksted this evening. Admirers of this sport will doubtless find it interesting. It is hoped that Christiansted will be also given an opportunity of extending hospitality to the performers.

TELEGRAMS.

ST. CROIX STATION.

London, Sept. 13th.—An unexpected hitch has arisen in the Irish negotiations. Mr. Lloyd George, who was at Gairloch, Scotland, today received Mr. Boland, Secretary to Mr. Eamon De Valera and Mr. McGrath, another Sinn Fein representative, announcing to an official communication tonight, and Messrs. Boland and McGrath are returning to Dublin with the Prime Minister's explanation of certain points in the Govt's proposals, for consideration by the Dail Eireann.

Geneva, Sept. 12th.—Mr. Elihu Root has definitely decided not to stand for election as a judge of the International Court of Justice. He said it was too great a responsibility for him to assume at the age of 76.

Tokio, Sept. 11th.—The Anglo-Japanese alliance is considered a dead letter by the conservative Japanese weekly Herald of Asia. It had been opposing the renewal of the alliance for the last year, on the grounds that it would excite suspicion in the United States.

Madrid, Sept. 13th.—The Moorish tribesmen fled precipitately from their positions near Melilla, when the Spanish forces began their offensive yesterday, said an official statement issued today. The Moors were disconcerted by the Spanish manoeuvres and the terrific shell fire poured on them, and abandoned foodstuffs and everything belonging to them in their flight.

Madras, Sept. 13th.—An official statement, issued under date of Sunday, says that the operations against the Moplahs in the Malabar district are progressing favorably. A British column which visited Ponani, to the south of Calicut made two hundred arrests, the statement adds.

Geneva, Sept. 14th.—Viscount Finlay, Great Britain, Dr. Cenevea, Spain, Dr. Barbosa, Brazil, Dr. Alvarez, Chile, Dr. Bustamante, Cuba, Dr. Weiss, France, Dr. Oda, Japan, Dr. Loder, Holland and Commodore Anziletti, Italy, were elected judges of the International Court of Justice by the assembly of the League of Nations on the first ballot this morning. Professor Moore, United States, was elected on the second ballot, Sir Robert Borden, Canada, and he having tied on the first ballot with twelve votes each.

London Sept. 14th.—The returns of

The weekly reports of school attendance for some time have shown that the schools in St. Thomas are better attended than those of St. Croix.

Are the parents in St. Croix willing to admit that the parents in St. Thomas are more appreciative of the opportunities afforded for educating their children, Let's show the St. Thomians that we are wide awake. Send the children to school, not one day in the week, but every day.

Do this and look for the next report.
